Year 13 of the Overnights. Lucky for some? Well, we're playing on the 1st April so that's an added twist. But the process is the same. An amazing crew backstage help our casts make 7 new plays. With an emphasis on the word 'play' – making stuff, trying it out, experimenting and stepping out of our creative safe zones. In theory anyway. What actually happens is down to the writers, directors and casts. Let's see what happens...
