

From Middlesex County Times.

500 for £1-10-0.

PARK THEATRE, HANWELL.

Programme

THE QUESTORS

Present

Three One-Act Plays

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 19th, 1930

AND

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 20th, 1930.

THE QUESTORS

present

"Postal Orders"

A Farce in One Act by ROLAND PERTWEE.

Characters (in order of their appearance):

Miss Budd (the Manageress) EVELYN SKELTON
Miss Evans (an Assistant) BARBARA SHARP
Miss Parker (an Assistant) MARGARET BROWNE
Ralph Wayne ALFRED EMMET
Gladys Graham HILDA ELLIOTT

Scene: A Post Office.

"Two Gentlemen of Soho"

By A. P. HERBERT.

NOTE.—"It is now accepted that Shakespeare loses nothing by a performance in modern dress, and this is a shameless attempt to uplift a modern theme by clothing it in Shakespearean language. Some may think the play wordy, but, then, there are brutes who think Shakespeare wordy."
A.P.H.

Characters (in order of their appearance):

Plum PHILIP WOOLLCOMBE
Topsy DOREEN BARNARD
Lady Lætitia MOLLY HARVEY
Lord Withers ALFRED EMMET
A Waiter GLEN FRANCIS
Hubert GUY HADLEY
The Duchess of Canterbury MARGERIE STRETTON
Sneak FRANK COCKBURN

The Scene is "The Colts and Fillies," a Night Club, Soho.

"The Road of Poplars"

By VERNON SYLVAINE.

Characters (in order of their appearance):

A Local Customer ALFRED EMMET
Charley (nicknamed "Le Fou," an English ex-soldier now drink-server and utility man) JOHN RUCK
Marianne (the wife of Charley) NORAH HADLEY
A Tourist (an English ex-officer) ALEC PAYNE
A Figure (called Richardson) PHIL ELLIOTT
Another Customer PHILIP WOOLLCOMBE

Scene: "Chez Madam Jeanne." The parlour of an estaminet on the Menin Road, Ypres. Time: An evening in January, 1922.

Producer ALEC PAYNE
Stage Manager KATHLEEN PAYNE
Assistant Producers
MARGERIE STRETTON and ALFRED EMMET
Assistant Stage Managers
PHIL ELLIOTT and CHRISTINE BLACKWOOD

The curtain scenery and the counter and telephone box used in
"Postal Orders," were designed and made by members of "The Questors." Other furniture by C. Eustace, West Ealing.

An Orchestra will play under the direction of Mrs.
Talbot Barnard, consisting of the following:—Mesdames
Winnall, Mackenzie, Kennett, the Misses Havelock Davies,
Gammellen, Gardner, H. Grice and Mathews, and Mr. T.
Watson.