

THE QUESTORS PRESENT

AT THE THEATRE IN EALING, NEAR LONDON
ON DECEMBER 29th, 30th and 31st, 1959, and JANUARY
1st and 2nd, 1960

FOR THE FIRST TIME IN EALING
THE GREAT AMERICAN DRAMA (in five acts)

THE DRUNKARD

By W. H. Smith and a Gentleman

!! Direct from presentation at Barnum's Waxworks and Museum New York !!

★ Personal appearance of Miss Craik from American Tour ★

Mary Wilson (An American village beauty) - - - -	Miss Craik
Mrs. Wilson (her widowed mother) - - - -	Miss Ogden
Lawyer Cribbs (a rascally lawyer) - - - -	Mr. Imbusch
Edward Middleton (a young man) - - - -	Mr. Drake
Julia (daughter of Mary and Edward) - - - -	Mrs. Estop
William (Edward's foster-brother) - - - -	Mr. McQueen
Agnes (his demented sister) - - - -	Miss Osgard
Mr. Rencelaw (a philanthropist) - - - -	Mr. Smith
Miss Spindle (an eccentric old maid) - - - -	Miss Price
A tavern-keeper - - - -	Mr. Bradbury

Villagers, drunkards, loafers, etc.:

Mr. Emmet, Mr. Estop, Mr. Wright, Mr. Curry, Mr. Nixon, Mr. Ives,
Mr. Kirby (junior) and Miss Turner.

!! Genuine representation of Broadway, New York !!

This, and other ELABORATE SCENERY, designed by Miss Venus and constructed without regard to expense by Mr. Mynard. SPECIAL LUMINOUS EFFECTS arranged by Mr. Carmody. Manager of the Stage, Miss Roberts, assisted by Miss Williams, Miss Heady, Miss Reed, Mr. Arundel and Mr. Plumbe, and others too numerous to mention.

Special Performance of Temperance Songs by

THE TEETOTAL QUARTET

(Mrs. McQueen, Miss Boyd-Taylor, Mr. Boyd-Taylor and Mr. Barrett)

Musical arrangements by Mr. Kirby (senior) who will preside at the pianoforte
The WHOLE ENTERTAINMENT arranged and managed by MR. GREEN

N.B.—The Free List is suspended for this Entertainment. No credit given.

GOD SAVE THE QUEEN