THE DANCE OF THE MAY MOON

We have the greatest pleasure in announcing that a Spendid Dance is to be held under the benevolent eye of the May Full Moon on Saturday, 19th May, 1962, from 7.45 to midnight.

The Dance is sponsored by The Questors' Grapevine Club, which celebrates its donation to the New Theatre Fund of the first One Thousand Guineas of Bar Profits. In warm appreciation of the generosity of members, a purely nominal charge of 8/6 is to be made for this event, and no expense is to be spared to make it one hundred per cent. go. All Questors members and their guests will be most welcome.

For this unique occasion the East Wing of the Theatre will be transformed by Designers of Genius into a Fairyland of Soft Lights and Silken Hangings. Guests will be received at 7.45 and will be entertained to Free Punch until 8.30. Dancing from 7.45 to 12.00 will be to the hep strains of the John Rolph Quartet, and periodic relief may be sought (by members of the Grapevine, and not free of charge) in the Bar until 11.45.

In the course of the evening a Superb Buffet will be served and a Galaxy of Local Artists of Talent will be seen in a Striking Cabaret. Dress will be Dinner Jackets or Lounge Suits on the one hand, and, no doubt, delicious on the other.

The number of tickets is strictly limited for the comfort of patrons, and an immediate purchase is advised to avoid bitter disappointment. They are available NOW in THE BAR or at the INFORMATION DESK.
