PRODUCERS NOTE

“The Devil’s Disciple” is an excellent example of Shaw’s inimitable style, where biting satire blended with his outrageous sense of fun makes his diction leap to life with almost operatic intensity.

Among his targets in this play are Romantic Melodrama and the puritanical view of Religion. With sure technique he deftly kicks away the props upholding outworn conventional attitudes and turns characters inside out with the skill of a conjuror.

"Oh! MY POOR LEGS

I simply must sit down!"

Poor circulation is the cause of many everyday ailments, particularly those affecting the lower limbs—rheumatism, swollen ankles, aching feet, and weariness and heaviness in the legs. Sluggish circulation may also mean tiredness and depression. By putting new life into the bloodstream, ELASTO goes right to the source of these troubles and the improved circulation, which quickly follows, brings lasting relief to leg-sufferers. ELASTO is pleasant, economical and effective; it tones up the whole system and helps you to remain young.
