

STUDIO

QUESTORS THEATRE MATTOCK LANE LONDON W5 5BQ 015670011

Sunday 27th March 1988

1.00 p.m.

A Rehearsed Reading of

JUST FOR COMFORT

by

Lee Torrance

This is one of a series of rehearsed readings of new plays.
Some minimal use will be made of costumes, props and set.
See overleaf for details of "Just for Comfort".

CAST

JAN	...	MARI KING
ARTHUR	...	JAMES GOODDEN

Directed by Rachelle Ellis

Stage Manager : Gabriel Farrell

Studio Director : Helen Walker

New Plays Adviser : Jane Dewey

*
* After the reading there will be a very *
* short break, followed by a discussion *
* with the author, director and cast. *
* *
* You are warmly invited to stay and *
* take part. *
* *

STUDIO

QUESTORS THEATRE MATTOCK LANE LONDON W5 5BQ 015670011

JUST FOR COMFORT

The entire play takes place in the living room of an old country cottage.

Act I Early morning

Act II

Scene 1 Early evening the same day

Scene 2 Later that evening

Lee Torrance has had some fifteen plays broadcast by the B.B.C. and stations abroad. Stage plays have been produced by lunchtime companies in London, Guildford and Brighton, as well as some amateur companies. His plays have won awards in festivals and competitions.

A novel, "Only on Friday" was published by Robert Hale.

Lee Torrance also paints, and his work has been shown at the R.B.A., the R.I., and the Royal Academy. He has also held exhibitions of his work.

Next Rehearsed Reading :

SUNDAY 24th APRIL at 1.00 p.m.

"IN THE BLOOD"
by
Taylor Lovering