
Next Rehearsed Reading
15th September

The Best of Friends

by Hugh Whitemore
directed by John Martin

A play adapted from the letters and writings of Dame Laurentia McLachlan, Sir Sydney Cockerell and George Bernard Shaw

by the author of '84 Charing Cross Rd',
'Stevie' and 'Breaking the Code'.

LOYALTIES

by John Galsworthy
director John Holloway

Sunday 7th July 7:45pm in the Foyer
Rehearsed Readings at Questors

Admission by programme 50p

1991

Loyalties by John Galsworthy

First performed at the St Martin's Theatre
March 8 1922

cast in order of appearance

Lord Charles Winsor	Ken Ratcliffe
Lady Adela Winsor	Vivien Kerr
Ferdinand de Levis	Richard Brown
Treisure	Chris McDermott
General Canynge	Edward Jeoffroy
Margaret Orme	Anna Macready
Captain Ronald Dancy	Steve Fitzpatrick
Mabel Dancy	Tess Walsh
Inspector Dede	Tony Worth
Robert	Paul Ashby
Major Colford	Ron Bloomfield
Augustus Borring	Paul Ashby
Lord St Erth	Alan Drake
Edward Graviter	Alan Drake
A clerk	Paul Ashby
Gilman	Ron Bloomfield
Jacob Twisden	Chris McDermott
Ricardos	Tony Worth

Act I

Scene 1 The dressing room of CHARLES WINSOR, owner of Meldon Court near Newmarket, about 11:30 pm.

Scene 2 The guest bedroom occupied by DE LEVIS, a few minutes later.

Act II

Scene 1 The card room of a London club, three weeks later

 Interval - 15 minutes ***

Scene 2 The DANCY'S flat in London, the following morning.

Act III

Scene 1 Three months later, JACOB TWISDEN'S room at the offices of TWISDEN and GRAVITER in Lincoln's Inn Fields.

Scene 2 The same, 10:25 the following morning.

Scene 3 The DANCY'S flat shortly after.