THE QUESTORS THEATRE

ONE FOR THE ROAD

"Educating Rita" "Shirley Valentine" "Blood Brothers"

These are but three of the well known plays penned by this author. If you've seen them, then you will know how the mind of Willy Russell works. Though set in the "North West" the action could actually take place in any new town where "Modern" housing estates were built for the "Nouveau Middle Class" during the late 70's or early 80's.

Performed many times, though mainly in the North West, the play has "starred" such names as Russ Abbott, Helen Shapiro, and Elizabeth Estensen.

Essentially a light hearted piece, we hope that you will enjoy yourselves to the full this evening with our version of the play.

In true rehearsed reading fashion, you may find that some "mimed" props and furniture may appear and disappear "to order". We would ask you to bear with us and use your own imaginations to help both us and you along.

I am pleased to say that I am blessed with a great cast to help me through this evening, and I would like to record here, my thanks to them all for agreeing to perform this play for me.

The action of the play takes place in the lounge of the Cairn's dormer bungalow on a modern housing estate in the North West of England.
