

FORTHCOMING SUNDAY ATTRACTIONS IN THE FOYER

JANUARY 15th - 7:45 p.m.

"A Physical Truth"
A thought provoking new play
by Canadian writer Larry Craig.

JANUARY 22nd - 7:45 p.m.
SPECIAL JUBILEE REVIVAL!
The very first play performed as a Questors rehearsed reading in 1947 makes a welcome return (with an entirely new cast!)

"The Galileo Case" by Michael Kelly

THE QUESTORS THEATRE

In association with the Bohemian Broadcasting
Corporation and Mulled Wine and Mince Pie
Enterprises presents

"CRISP AND EVEN BRIGHTLY"

by Alick Rowe

Rehearsed reading
Christmas Spectacular
December 18th, 1988

WHO WAS GOOD KING WENCESLAS?

The famous King Wenceslas of the carol was a real king in Bohemia, now part of Czechoslovakia. His goodness and Christian beliefs infuriated his mother, and his brother in jealousy murdered him on the church steps.

Before dying, he asked God's mercy for his brother's evil act. He became the patron saint of Czechoslovakia.

WHO IS ALICK ROWE?

Alick Rowe, the author of tonight's play, has an impressive list of credits to his name of which 'Crisp and Even Brightly' is just one of fourteen successful radio productions, some nineteen ventures for television and three books. A prodigious output by any standard.

Alick has just completed a six-part dramatisation of P.D. James' A TASTE FOR DEATH for Anglia Television, and is currently dramatising Eric Ambler's THE INTERCOM CONSPIRACY, again for Anglia.

CRISP AND EVEN BRIGHTLY

by Alick Rowe

Directed by Phillip Sheahan

Wenceslas	Peter Whelan	: King of Bohemia
Otto Sigmund	Brian Ingram John Davey	: Sentries to Wenceslas
Mark	Megan Whelan	: Page boy to Wenceslas
Ludmilla	Ffrangcon Whelan	: Grandmother to Wenceslas
Harry	John Downs	: Spy to Wenceslas
Crone	Ruth Lister	: Cook to Wenceslas
Vlad	Tony Diggle	: Major Domo to Wenceslas
Marta	Renata Nash	: Slavnik spy
Tunna Gomon	Maria Brusa Steve Fitzpatrick	: Slavnik Assassins
Man inside / Woman inside	Steve Fitzpatrick Maria Brusa	: Hovel-Dwellers
Ragman	Tony Diggle	: Man in rage in ruined hovel
Nice Man	Steve Fitzpatrick	: Vegetarian teetotaller in forest commune
Kermit	Alan Widdrington	: The Hermit

With special thanks to Jane Dewey, Jill Gee and Brian Moorhouse.