Presents a QExtra Event
Monday 1 April 2019

Doe
 By
Rebecca Robinson

Doe has been subjected to a brutal rape by a stranger. We follow her journey through medical examination, police interview and on to a victim support group where she hears the stories of other women, and their shared experiences and mutual support help them come to terms with what has happened.

This is an unflinchingly honest play that confronts the devastating psychological and emotional impact of sexual and physical violence.
